Non-Liability- The American Plains Artists and CFD Old West Museum’s sponsors, agents or employees shall not be liable for loss or damage to any works of art entered. All artwork will be insured by CFD Old West Museum once it is on their premises and until it leaves the premises. It is also recommended you carry your own private insurance, as well as during transit of your art to and from the exhibit. Any claims for damage, or other loss, will be made with your shipping carrier and your insurance by you, the artist. It is understood that once an artist has work juried into the show, it must be sent to the show for exhibit. If it sells prior to the show, the artist will pay the commission to APA and CFD Old West Museum and honor his/her commitment to show the work at CFD Old West Museum. The sales commission for this show is 40% and benefits both the APA and CFD Old West Museum. Artists receive 60% of the list price of their sold artwork. However, the commission on any premium from “Jump the Gun” sales will be 40% to the artist and 60% to the Old West Museum and APA. All pre-show sales are subject to the 25% Jump-the-Gun premium price and commission rates. Monies will be paid to the artist when received monies clear the bank or at end of the show. All artwork must remain in the show until the show closes--No Early Releases. Participation shows that the entrant understands and accepts this clause and conditions as stated.
